

LAW FIRM PROFILE

Barnabas Hema & Partners (BHP) Law Firm is a skilled, innovative and energetic team in corporate law (non-litigation) and litigation that provides various legal services designed to meet our client's needs. BHP is a law firm in Indonesia, established in September 2022 by a Police Senior Superintendent (Ret.) Barnabas Imam Setiyono and Hema Anggiat Marojahan Simanjuntak, holding its NIB No.: 1910220002214 and having its address at Epicentrum Walk, 3rd Floor A306-A307, Jl. H.R. Rasuna Said, Kuningan Timur, Jakarta Selatan.

OUR PARTNERS

Barnabas Imam Setiyono, SH, M.Si., MH

Managing Partner

Barnabas Imam Setiyono is one of the founder of Barnabas Hema & Partners (BHP) Law Firm, he is also the leader of the firm management currently. He is a licensed lawyer in Indonesia (Peradi/Indonesian Advocate Association) and was active in the National Police for almost 30 years. Barnabas before served as the Director of Detention and Evidence for the Metro Jaya Regional Police in Jakarta. Since 2020 to 2022 then, he was a senior counsel at William & Hendrik Law Office before finally decided to set-up this BHP Law Firm.

He is expert in criminal law, private law, administrative law and competition law. His particular expertise with investigating general and special crimes was gained while chief of the Fiscal, Monetary and Foreign Exchange, as well as the Industry and Trade, Investigation Units. Both these positions were at the Special Crimes Investigation Directorate. Barnabas was also the chief of the Property and Land Investigation Unit at the General Crimes Investigation Directorate of the Metro Jaya Regional Police. During his service with the police, Barnabas was awarded the Bintang Bhayangkara Nararya medal from the President of Republic of Indonesia for his flawless devotion and service beyond the call of duty. In addition, he received an Extraordinary Promotion to Police Senior Superintendent from the President of Republic of Indonesia for his loyalty, integrity and achievements.

a. Epicentrum Walk 3rd - A306-307
Kawasan Rasuna Epicentrum
Jl. HR. Rasuna Said - Kuningan
Jakarta - 12940

p. +62 21-2991-2275
e. hema.simanjuntak@barnabashema.com
barnabas.jesujuva@barnabashema.com
w. <https://barnabas-hema.com/>

Barnabas graduated from the Faculty of Law at the Sebelas Maret University. He also received a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Indonesia and a Master's degree in Business Law from Gadjah Mada University.

Hema Anggiat Marojahan Simanjuntak, SH, MH

Partner

Hema specialises in the private law, administrative law, industrial relations, and commercial dispute areas of litigation before the general court, administrative court and arbitral tribunal. Hema also has gained many experiences in certain non-litigation areas since years 2014 - 2018 such as corporate and M&A, corporate secretarial works and foreign & local companies set-up. He received his cum laude law degree from Atma Jaya Catholic University and having his post graduate degree on business law from Gadjah Mada University.

Hema is one of the founder of Barnabas Hema & Partners Law Firm and hold an important role on the firm management currently. He obtained his advocate licence in 2017 from the Indonesian Advocates Association (PERADI). Before established his own firm, Hema was a former associate at Grant Thornton Indonesia since 2014-2017, and a former mid-level associate at William & Hendrik Law Office since 2017-2022, also in 2017, he was chosen as a scholarship awardee for a Leadership & Public Policy Conference, hosted by the Geneva Institute for Leadership and Public Policy (GILPP) and the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) in Geneva, Switzerland.

Hema is also involved in organizational activities such as PERADI FC (Football Club), the Indonesian Bar Association (AAI DPC Central Jakarta) and Amicus Curiae (an advocacy (pro-bono) community).